

Corporate and Commercial Transactions

Our Corporate and Commercial Transactions Group represents businesses across diverse corporate and commercial transactions, from entity formation, capital raising and capital markets, mergers, and acquisitions to contractual, commercial, and intellectual property matters. Serving clients in multiple industries, our experienced corporate attorneys are active in both domestic and cross-border transactions and work with clients of many sizes and requirements. We bring a unique level of creativity, flexibility, and problem-solving ability to address our clients' needs and objectives, always mindful of cost- and time-efficiency.

Our Corporate and Commercial Transactions Group members work in close collaboration with our Capital Markets and Mergers & Acquisitions attorneys, forming a cohesive unit to help clients achieve their desired outcomes. Our Capital Markets & Securities attorneys, equally committed to client success, work with both issuers and underwriters to aid clients in their transactions, securities filing requirements, and general corporate work.
