

Cross-Border Transactions and Investments

Serving non-U.S. companies as they enter or expand operations in the U.S. is a specialty of Bressler's Corporate & International departments. Our multi-lingual attorneys represent our clients in connection with subsidiary formations, structuring acquisitions and investments, cross-border sales of goods and services, and technology and other intellectual property transfers. We advise our non-U.S. clients in regards to their U.S. interests on matters relating to corporate governance, governmental regulations, product liability, employment and employee benefits, environmental and litigation, arbitration and alternative dispute resolution. Our team prides itself in its experience, expertise and extensive international network of professionals that handle such matters for our firm's globally operating clients.
