

Private Client

Planning for your family's future. Achieving your most important goals and objectives. Giving you peace of mind. The members of the firm's Private Client practice are focused on developing and implementing thoughtfully considered and carefully constructed estate plans that reflect our clients' most essential priorities and provide for the family, friends, and organizations that are most important to them.

Our Private Client team of trust and estate attorneys are leaders in the bar. They bring experience, insight, and technical expertise to every matter. The breadth and depth of our trust and estate clients - including senior executives of major corporations, closely-held business owners, individual and corporate fiduciaries, retirees, young families, and many others - reflect the practice's extensive capabilities and flexible, client-friendly approach. Regardless of the complexity or simplicity of the circumstances, we are committed to providing exceptional legal advice and counsel to every one of our trust and estate clients.

The firm's Private Client services include estate planning, probate and estate administration, trust administration, and individual and family philanthropy. Members of the practice also focus their practices on trust and estate controversies, including will contests, fiduciary accounting actions, and guardianship actions. Whatever your specific trust and estate needs may be, we are ready to assist.
