Kirsten Nowak is an associate in the firm's Financial Institutions practice group in Florida.

Prior to joining Bressler, Kirsten was an associate at a Florida law firm where she represented claimants in securities arbitration and investment litigation matters.

Kirsten has several years of experience in the financial services industry and is very knowledgeable when it comes to the SEC and FINRA rules, regulations, and arbitration process. While in law school, she worked as a law clerk in the enforcement division at the Securities and Exchange Commission. Prior to that, Kirsten was a law clerk at The Florida Office of Financial Regulation in the Securities and Consumer Finance Division.

Kirsten received her J.D. from Florida State University College of Law in 2021, where she was a Staff Editor for the Florida State University Law Review. While in law school, she was a student attorney at the FSU Business Clinic. Kirsten received her B.S., magna cum laude, in Business Management from Florida State University on 2018.
