

Insurance

With decades of experience, Bressler knows the insurance industry. As increased regulations and continuing changes to the economy impact insurance investment portfolios, insurance industry participants require sophisticated legal counsel to respond to, manage and mitigate ongoing regulatory and contractual risk exposure, as well as litigation. Our Insurance Industry team has the depth and experience to effectively serve insurers, primary insurers, reinsurers, captive insurers, and insurance agents for all of their legal needs.

Our experience across the industry includes Accident/Health, HMOs, Brokerage, Captives, Life, Property and Casualty, Reinsurance, Risk Retention Groups, Third Party Administrators, Professional Liability and Workers' Compensation, among others. From the formation and authorization of insurance businesses to insurance coverage disputes and litigation, our team represents the interests of insurance-related businesses in matters throughout the country.

We have significant experience representing health insurers and other insurance-related entities on a national basis concerning regulatory and compliance, as well as transactional matters. We have broad federal and state regulatory and compliance experience and provide our insurance client's compliance advice and assistance on issues including:

- Bankruptcy and Insolvency matters
- Business and Commercial litigation
- Corporate Governance
- Enterprise Risk
- Employment and benefits issues
- ERISA requirements and litigation
- External and internal audits
- Financial Regulatory matters
- Financial Reporting
- Formations, reorganizations, strategic affiliations, and related corporate transactions
- General Liability matters
