

Retail

Retail industry clients need an experienced law firm, with in-depth capabilities across several practice areas, to rapidly respond to and address the myriad of legal challenges and opportunities facing retailers. With a vast array of geographic markets and operations environments, brick and mortar stores and online merchants, to single-store operations or major multi-outlet retailers with immense employee networks, participants in the retail industry are exposed to more regulation and more risk than most companies operating in any other sector.

Bressler's Retail team provides comprehensive legal and business solutions to support retail clients in everything from financing and structure to marketing, distribution and business operations. From the sales floor to manufacturing and distribution centers, and from disability access requirements to wage and hour compliance, our Retail team is experienced with all facets of the retail industry and the legal issues it faces.

We represent retail companies in a range of matters involving:

- Anti-Money Laundering (AML)
- Appellate Law
- Bankruptcy
- Business Formation and Structuring
- Business and Commercial Litigation, including breach of contract, directors and officers liability, business torts, and disputes under the UCC
- Commercial Transactions
- Corporate Governance
- Cross-border Transactions and Investment
- Cybersecurity
- Data Privacy
- Dispute Resolution
- Emerging Company
- Employment Law Counseling, Compliance and Training
- Employment Litigation
- Environmental Litigation
