Two Chamberlain Hrdlicka Attorneys Receive 2014 Outstanding Lawyers Award from the San Antonio Business Journal

San Antonio, October 30, 2014 – Two attorneys with national law firm Chamberlain Hrdlicka have been named 2014 Outstanding Lawyers by the San Antonio Business Journal. Charles “Chad” Muller, shareholder, and Jaime Vasquez, senior counsel, are among the exclusive group of 14 San Antonio attorneys recognized for their contributions to the legal profession and the community. Both Muller and Vasquez have extensive experience in tax, tax controversy and litigation.

As a Department of Justice Trial Attorney and an Assistant United States Attorney, Muller represented the government in the largest criminal tax prosecutions in the country. He now represents clients in federal and state civil tax litigation matters. Muller serves in leadership roles in several major tax sector organizations, including the IRS Commissioner's Advisory Group and Integrity Review Panel as well as the Department of Justice Tax Division and Advisory Committee. He is past Chair of the Office of Professional Responsibility Subgroup of the Internal Revenue Service Advisory Council. He was elected as a fellow of the American College of Tax Counsel, a fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers and a fellow of the Texas Bar Foundation.

Vasquez concentrates his practice on federal, state and international transactional and tax controversy matters, representing a broad range of clients including individuals, privately held businesses and large Fortune 500 companies. Heavily involved in the local legal community, he is currently president of the Mexican American Bar Association of San Antonio, treasurer of the Hispanic National Bar Association Legal Education Fund, Deputy Regional President for Region XII (AR, LA, OK and TX) of the Hispanic National Bar Association (HNBA), and Vice Chair of the HNBA Tax Section.

“We are very proud that Chad and Jaime are being recognized for their outstanding service in the San Antonio legal community,” said Wayne Risoli, managing shareholder of Chamberlain Hrdlicka. “Their awards further showcase our firm’s unparalleled expertise in tax controversy matters, not only in Texas but nationally as well.”
