Jaime Vasquez, Chamberlain Hrdlicka Attorney, Named among 2015 40 under 40 by the San Antonio Business Journal

San Antonio, January 21, 2015 – Jaime Vasquez, senior counsel with national law firm Chamberlain Hrdlicka, has been named among the 2015 40 under 40 by the San Antonio Business Journal, an accomplished group of 40 San Antonio young professionals recognized for their contributions to the community. A panel of judges consisting of past 40 Under 40 award recipients chose the 2015 winners from more than 110 nominees.

Jaime Vasquez is a successful tax and tax controversy attorney representing clients in federal, state and international transactional and tax controversy matters. He previously was named as one of the 2014 Outstanding Lawyers by the San Antonio Business Journal and recognized as a 2014 Texas Rising Star by Texas Super Lawyers magazine for his contributions to the legal community and service to his clients.

Heavily involved in the local legal community, Vasquez currently serves as president of the Mexican American Bar Association of San Antonio (San Antonio MABA), treasurer of the Hispanic National Bar Association Legal Education Fund, deputy regional president for Region XII (AR, LA, OK and TX) of the Hispanic National Bar Association (HNBA) and vice chair of the HNBA's Tax Section. Under his leadership, the San Antonio MABA was named as the "2014 Hispanic Bar Association of the Year" by the Hispanic Issues Section of the State Bar of Texas.

A strong believer in community service, Vasquez represents pro bono cases through the Tax Court Pro Bono Program of the State Bar of Texas (SBOT) Section of Taxation. He serves as the San Antonio Co-Coordinator for the SBOT Tax Court Calendar Call Pro Bono Program and has provided pro bono tax services to indigent clients. His other volunteer work includes having assisted Hurricane Katrina evacuees with their tax preparation through the IRS Austin VITA Program.

"We are very proud that Jaime continues to be recognized for his ongoing contributions to both the Texas and national legal community as well as locally to the San Antonio community," said Wayne Risoli, managing shareholder of Chamberlain Hrdlicka.
