CHAMBERLAIN HRDLICKA ELEVATES SHAREHOLDERS

HOUSTON, Feb. 1, 2018 – Chamberlain Hrdlicka is pleased to announce that it has elevated two of its shareholders to equity status and added three shareholders. Moving to equity shareholder are Scott M. Ratchick, based in Atlanta, and Jaime Vasquez of the firm's San Antonio office. In addition, Atlanta-based Peter N. Hall and Houston attorneys F. Daniel Knight and Jeff C. Wigginton, Jr. were named as shareholders. These promotions were affirmed during the firm's annual retreat on January 27 in Houston.

Scott M. Ratchick

Ratchick focuses his practice on complex commercial, franchise, and securities litigation and shareholder and business disputes. He represents publicly and privately held companies, officers, directors, registered investment representatives, broker-dealers and banks in state and federal courts and various arbitration forums throughout the country. He earned his undergraduate degree from Tulane University and his law degree from St. John's University School of Law.

Jaime Vasquez

Vasquez counsels clients involved in a variety of federal, state and international transactional and tax controversy matters. He resolves IRS examinations, collection cases, installment agreements, offers in compromise, requests for collection due process hearings and private letter rulings, among other activities. He earned his undergraduate and master's degrees from the University of Virginia, his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law and his master of laws degree in taxation from New York University.

Peter N. Hall

Hall counsels employers in labor and employment law matters, with an emphasis on litigation. His clients include large and small business who face a number of issues, including discrimination and retaliation claims, compliance with disability and medical leave requirements, wage and hour issues, employee terminations, restrictive covenants, union avoidance, trade secrets and records retention. He earned his undergraduate degree from The Ohio State University and his law degree from Vanderbilt University School of Law.

F. Daniel Knight

Knight practices in the areas of admiralty and maritime law, as well as in general civil litigation and appellate issues. He has experience in issues relating to safety in the maritime industry and has been involved with the defense of hundreds of admiralty and maritime litigation matters. He earned his undergraduate degree from the University of Texas at Austin and his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law.

Jeff C. Wigginton, Jr.

Wigginton works with clients involved in commercial and business litigation, energy litigation, construction litigation, professional malpractice claims and tort litigation. He earned his undergraduate degree from the University of Texas at Austin and his law degree from the South Texas College of Law.
