

HOLWELL SHUSTER & GOLDBERG LLP

DEMIAN A. ORDWAY PARTNER

646.837.5159 | dordway@hsgllp.com

Demian Ordway represents clients in complex commercial disputes, including large multidistrict litigation coordinating dozens of related actions, and in criminal and civil investigations by the Department of Justice and Securities and Exchange Commission. He has substantial experience with the payments industry and structured finance, but has also litigated a wide array of actions brought under federal and state antitrust law, federal securities law and regulation, the Bankruptcy Code, state corporate law, state contract and tort law, and the Copyright Act. Demian has represented hedge funds, large financial institutions, trustees, and Fortune 500 companies in both state and federal court.

Demian has contributed pro bono service to clients such as the Center for Reproductive Rights and Brennan Center for Justice, including helping draft an amicus brief in the Supreme Court voting rights case of Crawford v. Marion County Election Bd. that was cited by both the majority and dissenting opinions.

Prior to joining Holwell Shuster & Goldberg, Demian was a litigation associate at Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP and clerked for Judge Richard J. Holwell in the Southern District of New York and Judge M. Blane Michael in the Fourth Circuit.
