

KAREN SEBASKI QUOTED ON SUPREME COURT'S DECISION IN RETURN MAIL INC. V. U.S. POSTAL SERVICE

06.11.2019

Karen commented on the Supreme Court's recent ruling in this patent case, noting the decision "reaffirms a longstanding presumption of statutory interpretation that 'person' does not include the government unless the context indicates otherwise, or there is an affirmative showing of an intent by our legislature to include the government and its agencies."
