

BENCHMARK LITIGATION NAMES HOLWELL SHUSTER & GOLDBERG A TOP 10 BOUTIQUE, RECOGNIZES SIX PARTNERS IN 2017 GUIDE

10.19.2016

FIRM AGAIN RANKED HIGHLY FOR COMMERCIAL LITIGATION

New York—For the fourth year in a row, Benchmark Litigation has recognized Holwell Shuster & Goldberg LLP as a leading commercial litigation firm in New York. This year, the firm was also named a Top 10 Boutique, and six partners received individual rankings from Benchmark Litigation as well.

HSG founding partners Judge Richard Holwell, Michael Shuster, and Daniel Goldberg were named “Litigation Stars” in the Benchmark Litigation 2017 guide, as was John DiMatteo, head of the firm’s Intellectual Property practice.

Additionally, firm founding partner Dorit Ungar Black and partner Avi Israeli were named to Benchmark Litigation’s first-ever Under 40 Hot List. The list, compiled through a process of peer review and case examination, recognizes partners 40 years or younger who are emerging leaders within their firms.

These latest rankings come on the heels of HSG being named “New York Law Firm of the Year” by Benchmark Litigation in February.

According to Benchmark, clients “rave on the firm’s behalf.” Benchmark also notes that peers “marvel at the firm’s trajectory.” One states, “This is a firm that didn’t exist but a few years ago, and now they are out there roaring on all cylinders, just devastating opponents in their path.” The complete analysis on the firm is available here.
